

humberarboretum.on.ca

HUMBER ARBORETUM
&
ETOBICOKE MASTER GARDENERS
PRESENT

etobickemastergardeners.ca

The Eco - Garden Community Workshop Series
Leap Into Pruning

LEARN:

- ◆ about the importance of pruning
- ◆ proper pruning techniques
- ◆ tips on what to prune when
- ◆ common tools used for pruning
- ◆ how to care for your tools

Bring in your favourite
secateurs (pruner),

if you want to practice a cut or two!

DATE: February 29, 2020

TIME: 10:00 am to 12:00 noon

REGISTRATION INFO

To register for these workshops please visit
Humber.ca/arboretum/events

COMING UP NEXT

April 25, 2020 at 10am to 12 noon

Edible Gardens: Growing Your Own Food

DIRECTIONS

Centre for Urban Ecology
Humber Arboretum
205 Humber College Blvd.,
Toronto, Ontario, M9W 5L7
416-675-5009

The Humber Arboretum is located at the back of Humber College's North Campus. Enter the college through entrance A or E. Follow the road to the back of the college. The entrance to the Arboretum is directly across from the green bubble building. The Centre for Urban Ecology is the glass building with the bright red front door at the end of the path.